Safeguarding Statement

We are really pleased to welcome new and existing members to Torquay Alpine Ski Club and we would like to take this opportunity to introduce our club welfare officer.

Torquay Alpine Ski Club is committed to providing a safe, welcoming and inclusive environment where everyone, particularly children, young people and adults at risk, can participate in snowsport free from abuse, neglect, bullying, discrimination or harassment

The Club Welfare Officer's role is to promote safeguarding and to ensure members are aware that safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, thereby ensuring the Club's members have a positive and rewarding experience.

Torquay Alpine Ski Club is affiliated to Snowsport England (SE) and complies fully with Snowsafe, SE's Child Protection Policy, a copy of which is available for you to see at https://www.snowsportengland.org.uk/safeguarding/

We have procedures in place to ensure that all members are treated equitably and cared for whilst at the club.

If you or your child has any safeguarding issues you wish to discuss then please do not hesitate to get in touch with the club welfare officer.

The Club Welfare Officer is Amy O'Dwyer. She can be contacted on 01803 313350

Email: cwo@skitorquay.co.uk

We ask all new parents or carers, and children at the Club to read and agree to a code of conduct (One for parents and another one for the children). This is so we all understand what is expected of us and helps to ensure that everyone has a positive and happy experience here.
